Teams are two players and must check in at the TD stand after registration. Teams play as individuals, at separate tables, through the first 8 levels. If a teammate is eliminated in the first 8 levels, they have the option to re-enter for $200. After level 8, each team will combine into one stack. Players will then tag out and alternate play at every level change. If a teammate is eliminated during the registration period and does not re-enter, the team will play on the single remaining chip stack and continue to tag out each level. Players must wear their JACK issued wristbands at all times during play. Players may not switch teams, even if both teammates are eliminated. Once the money is reached, all teams will be issued a single use button allowing up to a 60 second clock to converse as a team. Big blind posts the single ante each hand. The big blind is posted first. Levels last 20 minutes. There will be no breaks after teams combine. The buy-in is $200 ($160+$40).
