Hand Rankings: No Limit Deuce to Seven Single Draw is a Lowball game in which the lowest hand wins. Aces, straights, and flushes are recognized as high. The best possible hand is 7, 5, 4, 3, 2.

Game Play: The game utilizes a Small Blind, Big Blind, and a large Big Blind Ante. Players are dealt 5 cards followed by a round of No Limit betting. After the initial betting round concludes, there is a drawing round in which players may discard 0-5 cards in order starting in worst position. Once all players have discarded or pat (draw 0), each player will be dealt the corresponding number of cards. It is each player's responsibility to ensure they have received the correct number of cards during the draw. Any player found to have the incorrect number of cards once the drawing round is complete may have a dead hand. Once the drawing round is complete, there will be a final betting round followed by showdown.
